THE 2102 HERNDON AQUATHON !

WHAT IS AN AQUATHON?

The Aquathon is an all water Biathlon. Participants will start with a half mile pool swim followed immediately by a half mile water run. Each athlete will be seeded according to an estimated swim time (indicated on entry form). After completing the swim, participants will go to their assigned run lane where they will begin their run. Run lanes are assigned according to height, shoe are required and hands must be in the water !

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

Participants will be divided into male and female by age. Awards will be given in the following age groups: 12-14, 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-34, 35-39, 40-44, 45-49, 50-54, 55-59, 60 and over. The top three overall men and women finishers will receive special prizes and ALL participants receive specially designed boxers! Participants must be comfortable swimming and standing in water at least 3.5' deep. Proper swim attire is required and aqua shoes are recommended for the run (and may be worn for the swim).

WHEN and WHERE IS THE EVENT?

Saturday, February 25, 2012 at the Herndon Community Center pool (814 Ferndale Ave, Herndon, VA 20170). Warm-ups from 6-7am. The event will start promptly at 7:15am.

WHO WAS JACK CORKEY?

Jack Corkey was a wonderful "ambassador" for the Town of Herndon. Jack, his wife Laurie, and the always friendly Great Harvest Bread Company staff served up baked goodies at local sporting events including the Herndon Festival 10k/5k races, Reston Triathlon and the Herndon Turkey Trot for many years. Jack and Laurie nurtured others through their service to the Embury Rucker Community Shelter, the Fairfax County Council for the Arts, the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, and many other local charities. Jack was also a runner and bikers, skaters, dog walkers, joggers and other athletes knew that they could get off the W&OD Trail and get a hot cup of coffee, a smile and a free slice of Jack's "darned good bread" all year round. This event is being held in honor of Jack's enthusiasm for sports and his dedication to the Town of Herndon.
